

6th Form Preparation work for History Week 1 and 2 Contact: Ms J Walker j.walker@ralphallenschool.com	 Read the case studies based around British politics in the period 1906-1918. Using the information create a timeline of the different political groups and events, and add detail on the changes that they made. Britain 1906-1918 National Archives Time: 2hrs	 Listen to this podcast about the rise of the Pankhurst family and their role in the Suffrage campaign for women. It also discusses the use of violence of their methods, and the importance of the Pankhurst writings that helped to influence the Suffragette movement. The Pankhursts History Extra podcast Time: 33min	 Listen to this podcast that discusses the role of Winston Churchill in the British politics and uncovers the debates around the concept that Churchill's destiny was defined by the Second World War. Decide for yourself whether you think the war is what defined Churchill. A New Life of Winston Churchill History Extra podcast Time: 45min
 Complete a booklet using the materials provided about what life was like in Edwardian Britain. Give detail about the experiences of different elements in society; including technological change, and leisure time. Edwardian Britain Source Analysis task Time: 1hr	 Watch this series about the changing world of Britain following the death of Queen Victoria in 1901; including the influence of politics, war, social upheaval, and the class system. Making of Modern Britain BBC documentaries - Andrew Marr Time: 6hrs	 Watch this short documentary about the Jarrow March of 1936. Note how society has changed in the Jarrow area – can you make comparisons between the change in industry and Bath itself? The Jarrow March, 1936 BBC Teach Time: 10min	 Listen to the tale of Philip II and his animosity towards Elizabeth I and the sending of the Spanish Armada. What does this tell us about his motives in foreign policy (dealings with other countries), and his own beliefs? The Spanish Armada BBC podcast with Melvyn Bragg Time: 45min
 Watch this episode on the Spanish Inquisition – it covers the manner in which heretics were persecuted for their beliefs. Understand how this practice of interrogation influenced Spanish and European life. The Spanish Inquisition Yesterday History channel Time: 45min	 Read the articles about Philip II of Spain focussing on how Philip developed his government, foreign policy, religious change and his own personal life. Make notes to show understanding. Philip II History Learning Site Time: 1hr30min	 Create a fact-file on Philip II including a family tree, his marriages, his children, his reign and the Spanish Empire in 1556 until 1598. Research well – DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA Philip II Time: 1hr	 Read the notes about Philip II's reign; including changes in government, religion, marriage, and foreign policy. Make a list of key terms and their translation. The Reign of Philip II Encyclopaedia Britannica Time: 1hr