

Join us to discover all aspects of our award winning early years degree and diploma

We understand that attending an open day is a significant part of a student's decision when it comes to choosing their options. Whilst we still cannot welcome students to our campus at this time, we are delighted to invite them to join our open morning on Saturday 8 May 10am-12pm via Zoom.

During this two hour session, principal Dr Janet Rose and vice principal Mandy Donaldson, will provide a comprehensive live tour of Norland, giving students the chance to explore our campus and see where our TEF Gold-rated degree and integrated diploma training takes place.

The second half of the morning will feature a live Q&A session, where students will have the opportunity to meet our friendly team and ask staff and students all those important questions about studying at Norland.

We would encourage you to circulate this invitation to your students and staff and we look forward to seeing them there.

How our course teaches anti-discriminatory practice

Society is becoming more diverse which is something that should be celebrated and something that features heavily in our curriculum.

Following the Black Lives Matter demonstrations in summer 2020, we organised a masterclass for students that provided them with a safe space to discuss racial inequality and how they can discuss this topic with children in their care. Read second-year student Matt's reflections on this session.

National Careers Week – 1-6 March 2021

After graduating from Norland, graduates (known as Norlanders or Norland Nannies) benefit from exclusive access to the Norland Agency which had six jobs for every Norlander looking last year.

But what does a job as a nanny look like? Whilst every nanny job is unique, Amalia (Set 37) provides an insight into her daily routine, her career so far and her current job in South Africa.

Norlanders aren't limited to nannying. Our award-winning and comprehensive degree and diploma integrated training opens the doors to a host of opportunities in the early years sector and beyond. Visit our website to learn more about the various careers Norlanders have gone on to enjoy.
